

HOMEBOUND INSTRUCTION

The district may provide homebound instruction for students whose expected absence from school will exceed one week due to an injury or illness that requires hospitalization or confinement to home.

A qualified teacher will be provided to help the homebound or hospitalized student keep up with his regular class work if the child is physically incapable of attending school, but is still capable of benefiting from a formal education program.

LEG. REF: W.S. 21-4-402