

Student Learning Goals

The goal of the school district shall be to provide opportunities for all students to develop specific academic and technical skills.

These goals will be placed within a context of a performance-based educational system in which high standards are set for all students. Parents are primary partners in the education of their children, and students take responsibility for their learning.

Legal Reference: RCW 28A.150.210 Basic Education Act – Goal
 28A.655.010 Washington commission on student learning

RSD #400
Adopted 12/13/83
Revised: 11/28/06