

Closed Campus

Students in grades kindergarten through eight shall remain on school grounds from time of arrival until close of school unless officially excused.

High School Campus

Students in grades nine through twelve may leave the school grounds during lunch time or at other times when they are not scheduled for classes, in accordance with the rules at the individual school.