

Release of Student During the School Day

Before sending a student home for illness, discipline or a corrective action, the principal or designee shall contact the student's parent or parent designated guardian to tell him/her of the school's action and to ask that he/she come to the school for the child or determine other action. If the parent or person authorized by the parent or legal guardian cannot be reached, the student shall stay at school until the close of the school day. A student may be released to a properly identified law enforcement officer in compliance with policy 3440, RR No. 1.
